

RED CARD PACK TEST • February 2012

Each year just before the wildfire season begins, wildland firefighters perform a Red Card Pack Test.

The test involves wearing a 45-pound weight vest and making twelve laps around the school track in 45 minutes.

This year we had 13 firefighters complete the test.

Volunteers, including CERTs helped by timing and recording the event along with being a cheering squad.

